PRESIDENT: The amendment is adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Jacobson would move to amend.

PRESIDENT: The Chair would like to announce that Senator Scofield has fourteen guests in the, well wherever you are, all over the Chamber. You sneaked in different entrances. They are from Alliance, Nebraska, with Mr. Bruce Rockey, their sponsor, who is the Vocational Director of the Alliance City Schools. We are very appreciative of you coming all this distance to visit the Legislature. Welcome. Senator Jacobson.

SENATOR JACOBSON: Mr. President and members of the body, I would like to call attention to a handout that we passed out this morning from Western Surety Company of South Dakota. This company does a lot of bond business in Nebraska, not only with car dealers but with grain dealers. They are the primary source of bonds for Nebraska grain dealers. I am not going to read the entire letter because it is on your desk. But I want to call your attention to the fact that one state in the nation finally the other day went to a $50,000 bond. That is the only state in the United States that has a $50,000 bond for car dealers. Since that time they find that there is too many people can't qualify for a $50,000 bond and I understand that the Nevada Legislature is taking steps to make a correction and probably wash that bond down to around $25,000. At $25,000 we are high in the
